

APPLICATION FOR HERMAN PURDY LIVESTOCK SCHOLARSHIP

Herman R. Purdy, July 4, 1919 – June 30, 1985, teacher, judging team coach, and one of the world's most revered livestock judges, lived not far from Huntingdon in Hartslog Valley where he raised cattle. He was inducted into the Saddle and Sirloin Hall of Fame in 1984. He was influential in the lives of many young 4-H and FFA members. The scholarship fund was started following his passing by Scott Brown who donated from the proceeds of his market livestock project. Scholarships are given to youth who have shown market livestock at the fair and are pursuing a post-high school education.

This award is for up to $500 (dependent on years of participation) upon verification of successful completion of the first semester/term at their college/trade school after being awarded the scholarship.

Requirements for applying:

- Must have shown 4-H or FFA market livestock as a Huntingdon County Member in good faith.
- Must have graduated from high school and be enrolled in higher education. Examples: college, university, technical or vocational-technical program.
- Can only receive scholarship one time.
- Must hand in completed application to the Huntingdon County Fair Office by July 1st.
